Shooter mcgavin quotes i eat pieces

From: Happy Gilmore Genre: Movies Who Said It?: Shooter McGavin Story after quote: I've already posted something about Happy Gilmore before so I won't go into much detail about the movie's plot. Basically Happy Gilmore is a former hockey player who becomes a golfer to earn enough money to reclaim his grandmother's house. Still, like most movies, there is still a major antagonist. And this person is Shooter McGavin (played by Christopher McDonald). He hates Happy (played by Adam Sandler) because the former hockey player doesn't take golf seriously. The quote comes quite late for the movie. Shooter wins the auction at Happy's house. To get your home back, Happy puts on a shooter. If Happy ranks higher than Shooter, he returns home. If Shooter defeats him, Happy will have to quit golf. After they agree to the terms, Shooter turns to the rival and delivers the quote. Happy laughs at what he said, especially with regard to his apparent meal choices. Wisdom Geek: Always watch out for what you say to people. Even if they are supposed to be jokes, people may misunderstood their actual intentions. Sagittarius just wanted to emphasize that he would be able to beat Happy easily. But, because of his choice of words, Happy made it sound like he eats crap every morning... Literally! So, when delivering messages, try to be as clear and detailed as possible. You never know how these things can be misinterpreted. Shooter McGavin: I eat pieces of like you for breakfast. Happy Gilmore: Do you eat pieces of for breakfast? Virginia: Hey, Hey, Hey, Hey! Want to beat him? Beat him on the course. Happy Gilmore: That's right, I'm going to beat my ass on the course! Shooter McGavin: Yes, right. And Grizzly Adams had a beard. Lee Trevino: Grizzly Adams don't have a beard. [interview] Thank you, Doug. I saw Doug play yesterday. I have to tell you that this guy spends more time on the sand than David Hasselhoff. [The shooter's ball lands on Mr. Larson's foot] Mr. Larson: That's two so far, Shooter.Shooter McGavin: Oh, you can count. Good for you. Mr Larson: And you can count on me -- waiting for you in the parking lot. Crowd: Ooooooh. Damn you folks. This is golf. Not a rock concert. Shooter McGavin: I eat pieces of like you for breakfast. Happy Gilmore: [laughs] are you eat pieces of for breakfast? McGavin Shooter: No... I... Happy Gilmore: I got into this tournament for one reason: money. And now I have a new reason: kicking your ass! McGavin shooter: Well, I'd like to see you try it. Happy Gilmore: [He picks up a bottle of beer and smashes it in half] Let's do it! Shooter McGavin: I meant on the golf course! Virginia: [to Shooter] Have you seen this? Shooter McGavin: Yes. Nice shot. Virginia: I just got hole-in-one on a par four! Shooter McGavin: I know. I just said I saw it. Virginia: [laughs] Oh, I hope he wins. It's a publicist's dream. I mean a guy who could ball that away - oh, oh, can really attract a crowd. [Virginia leaves smiling] Shooter McGavin: [muttering] Do you know what else* can attract a crowd? A golfer with an arm growing out of his ass. Shooter McGavin: Just stay out of my way, or you'll pay, listen to what I say. Happy Gilmore: Hey, why don't I have and eat some hay. I can lie down by the bay, do things out of clay, just maybe, what would you say? Damn you folks. Go back to your szanty. Happy Gilmore: Green jacket, gold jacket that gives you crap? Jeering Fan: You'll need a blanket and sun lotion because you'll never get off this beach like you've never gotten into the NHL. ya JACKASS. Happy Gilmore: uh oh happy learned how to put Happy Gilmore: Uh oh, Happy learned to put. Happy Gilmore: The price is bad.. Mr. Larson: And you can count on me waiting for you in the parking lot! Potter: A lot of pressure. You have to rise above it. You have to use good energy, block the bad ones. Use... Energy... Block... Bad. Feel the flow, feel it. It's round. It's like a carousel - you pay a quarter, you get on a horse. It goes up and down and around. Round... Wheel. With music, flow. All good things. Potter: A lot of pressure. You have to rise above it.
